

Pownall Hall School

'Pownall Hall School is committed to co-education and aims to provide a caring, disciplined, safe and secure family environment, where all pupils are enabled and encouraged to maximise their academic, sporting, musical and creative potential. The School aims to instil traditional values of courtesy, good manners, mutual respect, tolerance and compassion in its pupils and help them develop self discipline and good working habits for the future. The all round personal development of each and every pupil lies at its heart.'

2d CORPORAL PUNISHMENT POLICY STATEMENT

Pownall Hall School is a caring, civilised community that aims to inculcate and maintain pleasant relationships and respect between all adults and pupils.

To help achieve this aim and maintain its ethos, the school will not tolerate corporal punishment nor threatened use of corporal punishment in its dealings with its pupils.

There is no corporal punishment, or punishment that incurs physical pain or discomfort for any child, allowed at the School. Its use would constitute a gross breach of professional conduct.
